It's Showtime

The Quiet American

From the classic novel by Graham Greene comes a murder mystery centered on a love triangle set against the French Indochina War in Vietnam, circa 1952. It's the story of a veteran English journalist (Michael Caine), a young American (Brendan Fraser), and a beautiful Vietnamese woman caught between them. This is a world where nothing is what it seems -- suffused with opium, intrigue, and betrayal. Rated R 2 Hrs.
Fri., Nov. 3, at 1:30 pm / Den

Blossoms in the Dust

Edna Gladney (Greer Garson) lost her son when he was very young. By chance she discovered the injustice within the law towards children whose parents are unknown, and decided to open an orphanage for these children, despite the stigma. She fought against the unfair laws that discriminated against children born out of wedlock.

From Here To Eternity

At an Army barracks in Hawaii in the days preceding the attack on Pearl Harbor, lonewolf soldier and boxing champion "Prew" Prewitt (Montgomery Clift) refuses to box, preferring to play the bugle instead. Hard-hearted Captain Holmes subjects Prew to a grueling series of punishments while, unknown to Holmes, the gruff but fair Sgt. Warden (Burt Lancaster) engages in a clandestine affair with the captain's mistreated wife (Deborah Kerr).

Tour Guide Bus Trip Meeting

Join me for a special meeting to see the interest of using a tour bus company for special outings. We would have the opportunity to take a bus ride to downtown Chicago, see Christmas lights, sing carols and hear holiday stories. There would be a fee for these bus trips, but it will be in a comfortable tour bus with provided driver and story teller. Come hear about it and let's discuss the possibilities of places to go and see.

Service Award 2017

The Service Award for 2017 was presented to Dining Room Hostess, Cristina Badescu, for her outstanding contribution of making our experience in the dining room so delightful. Not only does she seat people and solve their dining concerns but does a sensational job of decorating the dining room several times a year. She has just this September completed her 20th year of service at Bridgeway. Her name has been engraved on the plaque hanging on the wall outside of the Den. Congratulations, Cristina!
